GI Tells How Son Died

Mother at Trial While Ex-Prisoner Charges GI Killed By Fellow American

NEW YORK, (AP)—A mother today heard a soldier's story of how her son met death in a Chinese Red prison camp in Korea—allegedly at the hands of a fellow American.

Mrs. Loretta Jones, of Detroit, maintained her composure during the grim recital but wept later during a recess in the court-martial of Sgt. James C. Gallagher, 23, of Brooklyn.

Gallagher is charged with collaboration with the enemy and the "unpremeditated murder" of three sick American prisoners.

Sgt. Donell Adams, 27, of Cottonwood, Ala., now stationed at Ft. Lewis, Wash., demonstrated his version of how Cpl. John William Jones, severely ill and unable to walk, was ejected from a shelter and into freezing weather outside.

"I saw Gallagher come in the door," said Adams. He came over and slapped Jones twice. He said something in harsh and angry tones.

Adams said Gallagher then picked up Jones and carried him out the door "like a bartender bouncing a drunk."

"Why didn't you say something?" the court asked.

"Hell, I was scared," replied Adams, who said he himself was ill at the time. He said that with the freezing temperature outside "I wouldn't have lasted long."

During the recess Mrs. Jones told newsmen: "It's awful hard to take," but that after yesterday's testimony against Gallagher she "knew what to expect."

"If I hadn't come, I'd have felt worse," she said. She has attended each session of the trial with her daughter, Mrs. Zenith Tucker, also of Detroit.

Mrs. Tucker told newsmen "the (Gallagher) takes it all as a joke, and this is no joke."

A previous witness said Gallagher once advised a Communist instructor to shoot captives who resisted Red indoctrination.

Eleven Airmen Will Go Home This Weekend

TOKYO, (AP)—Eleven happy U.S. airmen today officially got the news they prayed for during 32 long months in Communist captivity—"home this weekend."

The Air Force said Col. John Knox Arnold and the 10 other fliers freed by Red China last week will leave aboard two berth-equipped C-54s tomorrow for Travis Air Force Base, Calif., via Midway and Hawaii.

Arriving at Travis Friday morning, they will continue aboard two fast two-engine Convairs to the military or civilian airports closest home.

They were told they should be home Saturday, or Sunday at the very latest.

The Air Force considered flying them to Travis via Alaska and Tacoma, Wash., but the airmen themselves said they wanted to return via the longer Midway-Hawaii route.

Protesting test officials "make a fuss" over them, the fliers also said they preferred no mass meeting with relatives at Travis, as proposed.

Mt. Etna Slows Down

CATANIA, Sicily (AP)—Mt. Etna's latest eruption has dwindled to almost nothing.

The mountain, Europe's highest volcano, began belching smoke and flame July 1 and several weeks ago began spilling lava from a crater on the northeast side. However the lava stopped well above the closest villages in its path.

It's Nice Right Here

This isn't a bad place to be right now. Down in Australia they're having fierce blizzards and over on the east coast Hurricane Connie is heading for the Carolinas. Nothing but blue skies here, all day long.

The temperature at 7 a.m. was 63; 86 at 1 p.m. and 87 at 2 p.m.

The temperature one year ago today, high 87, low 62; two years ago, high 88, low 55; and three years ago, high 88, low 73 with .16 inch of rain.

Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday with a thundershow likely late tonight or Wednesday forenoon. Low tonight in upper 60s. High Wednesday in 80s.

Stage at Lake of the Ozarks 57.1 steady.

MARK OF TRAGEDY—The shoe of Harvey A. Makinen, 49, of Kansas City, Kan., was pinned to the highway by the bumper of the car which struck and killed him near Lawrence, Kan., when he stopped to help another motorist stalled in a heavy rain storm. Makinen's toes were severed by the bumper. Six other persons were injured, none seriously. (NEA Telephoto)

Fifth Successive Rise--

Employment Keeps Booming As Jobless Number Recedes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Employment boomed in July to an all-time record of nearly 65 million, while the number of jobless dipped below 2½ million, the government reported today.

The fifth successive monthly rise in employment carried the total of

Offer Reward For Any Leads In Allen Case

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Kansas City Star said today it is offering a $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the slayer of Mrs. Wilma Allen.

The newspaper said the reward is being offered through the Kansas City Crime Commission.

The offer came shortly after the Motor Car Dealers Assn., of Greater Kansas City posted a $500 reward.

Another $500 was offered by the state of Kansas through the governor's office at Topeka.

Wayne S. Murphy, managing director of the Kansas City Crime Commission, said two members of his organization already have volunteered to put up $250 each to augment the reward fund.

Meanwhile, police said there were "no new clues" as the murder probe continued.

Sikeston Man Admits Cheating His Partner Of Soybean Carloads

MEMPHIS (AP)—Robert Foster, 38, Sikeston, Mo., has admitted he cheated his former partner out of two carloads of soybeans worth $4,475.

Foster testified yesterday at a bankruptcy hearing for L. V. Butler of Memphis, former millionaire commodities speculator. The two were partners in three Missouri firms—Black Cin Co., Butler-Foster Milling Co., and Butler-Foster Farms Inc.

Foster said he sold two carloads of soybeans and kept the money without Butler's knowledge because "I needed the money."

Attorneys for Butler's creditors said they had signed notes showing Foster owed Butler $103,000.

Foster testified it was nearer $70,000. He said he is working for a grain company now for $100 a week and can't repay Butler.

Kansas Joins Missouri--

Davy Crockett Fans Switch To Wyatt Earp Celebrations

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Step back a bit, you Davy Crockett fans, and give Missouri and Kansas some breathing space to honor another frontiersman—Wyatt Earp.

Come Aug. 27, the two states will observe Wyatt Earp Week in memory of the gun-fighting marshal who carved his name in the history of the old West.

The observance will continue through Sept. 6, with special emphasis on a program in Kansas City Aug. 27 at which former Mayor John B. Gage will be presented the first national Wyatt Earp Law and Order Plaque.

Plans for the week were announced today by Don Davis, vice president of KMBC-TV in Kansas City, which will carry a new weekly program, beginning Sept. 6, dramatizing the life of Earp.

Special Clinic For 2nd Salk Vaccinations

A special clinic will be held at Horace Mann auditorium Thursday morning for giving the second Salk anti-polio inoculations to those who were unable to receive their shots previously. The clinic will begin at 8:30 a. m. and continue through 10:30 a. m. Only children in Pettis County who have received their first shot and not their second will be inoculated at this clinic.

Prison Guards Badly Needed States Warden

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Warden Ralph N. Eidson issued an appeal today for more guard applicants at Missouri's Penitentiary as he announced the start of a new guard schooling session.

Kidson said despite recent merit system increases in guard salaries the number of able applicants has not been as high as expected. The old starting salary was $150 a month and Eidson conceded that had not drawn many men to employment at the prison.

Now the lowest beginning salary is $170 a month but for those men between 25 and 55 years of age who can pass the physical and mental examinations a starting salary of $206 or more is possible.

Eidson said the guard force at the penitentiary and its three prison farms now is about 246, or 100 short of the hoped for staff. The security of the big prison, rocked by a major riot and lesser demonstrations last fall, is not hampered now however. Eidson said instead present guards are working a 48-hour week. If a full force can be hired the work week will be cut to 40 hours, Eidson said.

He also disclosed that a new program, attainable only with a full guard force, will go a long way toward easing tension at the prison. With adequate security system can almost double the present 315 men on the Church prison farm. Then the added labor force can be used to put a limestone facing on the levees, built to protect the bottomland fields at the farm from the tearing force of the Missouri River in flood.

The tally of jobless was 2,471,000 as against 2,679,000 in June. "The rate of employment increase during the past five months has not been matched since the postwar reconversion period of 1946," Secretary of Commerce Weeks and Secretary of Labor Mitchell said in the joint statement.

They reported about five million persons have been added to the employed total since February, 1955, as compared with an average spring and summer rise of three million in the 1947-54 period.

Only 3.7 per cent of the total civilian labor force—which numbered 67,465,000—was job hunting, as against four per cent a month ago and 5.3 per cent a year ago.

Almost the entire job increase in the month occurred in nonfarm activities. Total nonfarm employment, as counted by the Census Bureau, rose by 900,000 to 57 million, a record of the season.

Factory payrolls held steady at 16,600,000 in July as a continued expansion of production almost offset the effect of vacation shut-downs. Since the first of the year, more than half a million workers have been added to factory payrolls, the largest January-to-July gain since 1950.

Recommend President Consider Asking New UN Charter Revision

WASHINGTON (AP)—A special Senate subcommittee recommended today that President Eisenhower consider asking revision of the U.N. charter even though Soviet Russia is opposed.

The group, headed by Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Foreign Relations Committee, saw a possibility of developing "more acceptable and effective mechanisms for peace than those which now exist."

Contestant Keeping Outcome In Suspense On $64,000 Show

NEW YORK (AP)—The $64,000 question today was: "Will opera whiz Gino Prato try for the $64,000?"

Or will he take the $32,000 he already has won, and call it quits?

The 55-year-old Bronx shoemaker says he probably won't make his decision until he enters the studio tonight to appear on the CBS-TV giveaway program The $64,000 Question.

Prato said at a news conference yesterday he would go to St. Patrick's Cathedral before the show and pray for guidance.

Prato faces another question on opera tonight. He can bow out and take the $32,000 he has won by his amazing knowledge in that category. If he tries for the grand prize and strikes out, he still will get a $4,000 auto as a consolation prize.

GEORGETOWN, Colo. (AP)—An 11-year-old Missouri girl, lost for more than 26 hours in the rugged country on Mt. Evans, was found today.

Koreans Increase Rioting

Red-Hating Railway Workers Reinforce Others at Inchon In NNSC Protest

SEOUL (AP)—South Korea tonight once more warned Communist truce inspectors to get out by Saturday as riotous demonstrations which have injured 22 U.S. soldiers swung into their fourth day.

Cho Chung Hwan, acting foreign minister, issued a statement saying renewed warfare is near and South Korea can "wait no longer" to remove the truce inspectors. They are accused of spying.

"The danger is too great," Cho declared. "The day of renewed Communist attack too close."

Cho's statement was issued against a backdrop of high tension at the nearby port of Inchon. There 1,200 Korean railway workers reinforced 300 demonstrators who tried to storm the truce inspectors compound on Wolmi Island out in the harbor.

U. S. soldiers, 700 strong, turned back the Koreans with tear gas but not until seven soldiers were injured by flying rocks and sticks. None was injured seriously.

Demonstrations continued at four other ports of entry in South Korea where the truce inspection teams examine imports of military supplies.

The Koreans are trying to enforce President Rhee's ultimatum that the NNSC leave Korea by Saturday. Rhee claims the Communist Poles and Czechs on the commission are spies.

Today's demonstration was broken up by tear gas bombs and blank shells, the latter fired to frighten the Koreans.

Some of the enraged demonstrators threw a U.S. guard box at one causeway into the sea. Others tried to storm the island from the sea. They too were repulsed.

Nine Koreans were reported injured in the Wolmi clash, three seriously. An ROK army spokesman said one had received a bayonet wound, another had been cut on the head with a rifle butt, and the third had been shot in the leg.

There was no confirmation from U.S. sources.

In Pusan, scene of the most violent clash, an estimated 3,000 to 4,000 demonstrators yesterday made several attempts to break into the NNSC compound. They were repulsed with tear gas bombs. Fifteen American soldiers and 23 Korean demonstrators were injured.

Demonstrators, ranging from a handful to several hundreds, continued their sitdown protest in Kusan, Taegu and Kangnung on the east coast.

A U.S. 8th Army spokesman said, "Everything is quiet elsewhere."

The demonstrations stem from an ultimatum handed by the ROK government to the NNSC Sunday demanding the group's withdrawal from Korea "within a week."

The Republic of Korea has been opposed to the half-Communist NNSC since its creation under the Korean armistice.

Make Prediction Atomic Power To Compete with Electric, Coal

GENEVA (AP)—An American scientist told the atoms-for-peace conference today "there is a good possibility" atomic power will be competing with electricity from coal in the United States within the next 15 or 20 years.

The prediction was made to the 72-nation scientific congress by Dr. James A. Lane of the Atomic Energy Commission's Oak Ridge, Tenn., national laboratory.

"Taking all available economic and technical information at its face value," Lane declared, "it is evident that the outlook for large-scale nuclear power in the United States is very promising."

Reporting at the same conference session, two Russian scientists indicated such an atomic plant as the 5,000-kilowatt station the Soviet Union now is operating can best be utilized in areas remote from coal supplies or where only low grade coal is available.

Lane told the conference a review of published estimates of the capital cost of nuclear-electric plants, combined with projected operating costs, had led him to conclude "there is a good possibility that nuclear power costs in the Mother Was Communist--

Secretary of Navy Reviews Denial of Commission Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Navy Thomas personally will review the record and make the decision on Eugene Landy, denied a Naval Reserve commission because his mother was once a Communist.

Thomas said yesterday a special board of officers has been formed to review the case and Landy will be given a chance to appear before the board. No timetable was given.

Landy, 21, of Bradley Beach, N.J., sailed Sunday on a 30-day trip as a deckhand aboard the supertanker Western Sun from Marcus Hook, Pa., to Beaumont, Tex.

He was graduated with honors from the Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, N.Y., last Friday but stood silently, hands at his side, while fellow graduates were sworn in as ensigns in the Navy Reserve.

Thomas said that, according to regular procedure, Landy applied for a Navy commission toward the end of his senior year. And still according to procedure, Thomas said, his qualifications were considered by a regular naval board. The board unanimously decided against his suitability, the Navy secretary said.

Thomas said Landy then was interviewed by representatives of the Navy Department and the entire case was again reviewed by the regular screening board, which again "unanimously recommended that Mr. Landy should not be granted a commission."

Thomas said the Bureau of Naval Personnel has received a request from Landy to reconsider his application and that this reconsideration will be given as it would be to any other applicant.

Landy's mother Mrs. Dborah Landy has acknowledged membership in the Communist party during World War II days. She said she gave it up at the insistence of her son.

The 89th annual Moniteau County Fair opens Wednesday at California, with saddle club show, a horse show, homecoming and a parade listed as the top attractions of the four-day event.

The annual event will be kicked off Wednesday with judging of exhibits during the day and a saddle club show beginning at 7:30 p.m. The saddle club show will have entries from Buncheon, Iberia, Prairie Home, Boonville, Otterville and Versailles.

A parade, featuring floats of organizations and merchants, will launch Thursday's program. The fair which will wind through a part of California is set for 9 a.m. The afternoon program will be highlighted by the junior cattle show and a homecoming which is set for 2 p.m.

The open cattle show will be held Thursday night. A tractor rodeo will spotlight Friday afternoon activities at 2 o'clock while the first evening of the horse show is set for 8 p.m. Friday. Saturday night will be stake night in the horse show. It is part of the Little Dixie Circuit.

C. M. Kroeck will be the announcer for the fair while Victor Gray will judge the dairy cattle. Both are of California. E. J. McFall of Smithville, who is approved by the Missouri Horse Show Association, will judge the two evenings of the horse show and W. H. Gardner of Rocheport will judge the ham show.

Each picture should be accompanied by this information: the student's name and the name of the parents, the name of the college to be attended, the field of study, and where and when the student was graduated from high school.

Red China Postpones Meeting at Geneva; Report Some Headway

GENEVA (AP)—Tomorrow's scheduled meeting between the ambassadors of the United States and Communist China has been postponed until Thursday at Red China's request.

It was believed Red China's Wang Ping-nan required more time to confer with his government on yesterday's 2½-hour session.

The ambassadors failed yesterday in their fourth attempt to agree on the release of 40 Americans held in China, but an unofficial Communist source said "some progress" was made.

In reply to the U.S. demands for release of the Americans, the source said, the Chinese asked for a list of Chinese nationals in the United States and proposed that India represent Red China's interests in matters of repatriation.

Chamber Sends Announcements Of AF Picnic

Letters announcing the second annual Sedalia Air Force Base picnic sponsored by the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce which will be held at Liberty Park at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 16, have been mailed to Chamber members.

Mrs. Anna Bagby, chairman of the good will committee of the Chamber of Commerce, James T. Denny, general chairman of the picnic, and Mrs. Frank Wagner, food and hostess chairman, are asking the cooperation of all members in making the picnic a success.

Between 2,500 to 3,000 airmen may be expected at the picnic and it is necessary that Sedalians bring ample food for their own family and two extra guests. A sufficient quantity of chicken must be brought to take care of the crowd with each family to have at least two fried chickens, a salad or baked beans and a dessert.

Police Test Safety Belts in Squad Cars

ST. LOUIS (AP)—St. Louis police officers riding in cars are trying out airplane type safety belts for safety purposes.

Acting Chief Joseph Casey said yesterday the belts have been installed in two scout cars and three ambulance-type cruisers. The belts are used on emergency runs where greater speed is required and there is more chance of an accident.

Rotary Club Hears Address On Accidents

Sgt. Wray Shadwell, Safety Division of the Missouri State Patrol, Jefferson City, took for his topic Monday noon in his talk before Rotary Club, "Slow Down and Live", the national slogan.

Sgt. Shadwell pointed out that during three years of the Korean War, there were 25,604 killed, but for the same period of time the deaths due to traffic accidents totaled 395,000. In 180 years war has taken 950,000 lives but in 55 years automobiles have killed 1,142,000. The dreaded disease, polio, Sgt. Shadwell said, took 1,444 lives last year of children from one year to 14 years but 3,933 were killed in traffic accidents.

Speed, the speaker said, is one of the main factors. The record shows that deaths from speeds 40 to 50 miles are three percent; 50 to 60 miles, four percent; 60 to 70 miles, eight percent and over 70 miles 19 per cent.

Sgt. Shadwell stressed the fact that it was the duty of every citizen to demand from the General Assembly that something be done about it.

The meeting was presided over by D. W. Heckart, president, with invocation by the Rev. Thomas W. Croxton. Audrey Case led the singing with Lillian Fox at the piano. The speaker was introduced by James T. Denny, program chairman.

Guests introduced by James Denny were Michelle Peabody, guest of her father, Leonard Peabody; Sgt. Van Winkle, Highway Patrol, guest of James Denny; Mrs. Anna Bagby, guest of Del Heckart; C. D. Rich, Washington, D. C., guest of W. E. Hurlbut, Jr.; and Rotarians Hal Conrod, Warrensburg, and John Kallenborn, Port Allegany, Pa.

Gov. Frank Hagerty of Leabon has set Dec. 5 for his official visit to the club.

Mrs. Anna Bagby announced Tuesday night, Aug. 16, a picnic at Liberty Park will be held for men at the Sedalia Air Force Base sponsored by the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce. James Denny is general chairman of the picnic.

Aussies Have Blizzard Worst of the Year

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Wintery gales swept New South Wales and Victoria today as Southeast Australia recorded its worst blizzard of the year.

The storm struck yesterday, leaving huge snowdrifts in its path in the southern Australian Alps. Winds were abating in the mountains today, but still roared through lower regions.

Couple Die Together

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP)—An ailing, pajama-clad man and his wife walked arm in arm into the path of a speeding express train last night and were killed.

In their car near the tracks was found a suicide note saying, "We can't stand it any longer."

Killed were William Martin, 63, and his wife Louise, 61, of Dunbridge.

Their only child, Mrs. Rosanna David, said her father had been in ill health recently.

Propose County Bonds

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A $55,200,000 bond issue election on Nov. 8 was proposed by the St. Louis County Citizens Bond Issue Screening Committee last night.

The recommendations go before the County Council tomorrow. Included in the recommendations were $8,500,000 for rights of way for three expressways and an outer belt highway, purchase of Weiss Airport for $1,300,000, and $1,500,000 for a hospital and $600,000 for voting machines.

Tax Board to Close

The Board of Appeal of the County Court will close its hearings for tax adjustments on Wednesday. No claims may be filed after that day.

Freed Flyers Barely Missed Fiery Death

TOKYO (AP)—The plot said to have been hatched by Red China last week narrowly escaped being "blown clear out of the sky," when three Communist MIGs attacked their B29 Jan. 12, 1953.

It was the first time the pilot, Capt. Eugene J. Vaadi, Clayton, N.Y., told the press his story of the tense 3 or 4 minute interval from the time the leaflet-dropping B29 was attacked until the crew bailed out into Red captivity in the Korean War.

The night attack was in North Korea, 40 miles south of the Yula River boundary of Red China, the crew says.

"We were under attack before reaching the last of six leaflet targets," Vaadi related. "Between the last two targets they really locked on us with searchlights."

"Then two MIGs almost simultaneously came at us. The first from the left — so close I could almost see the pilot — the second from the right."

"A third MIG passed high between the first two and let loose two rockets. Our scanner saw them coming."

"Luckily, I was slightly in a turn, trying to get out of the line of fire. If I hadn't turned, they would have hit our midsection."

"They would have blown us clear out of the sky."

"I gave the order to bail out. We had stuck aboard for what seemed quite some time, but actually within 3 or 4 minutes we were all out."

"It is possible the aircraft blew up before it hit the ground."

Soviet Visitors Split Up to View Minnesota Areas

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The 12 visiting Soviet farm chiefs today split into two groups in order to make their schedule of visits to farms and farm enterprises here in Minnesota less intense.

Three of the Russians led by livestock expert Turi Golubash set out to travel to New Prague where they were to see livestock farms, attend a luncheon with the New Prague Rotary Club and see a turkey growing operation.

The other Russians went to visit a dairy between White Bear and Stillwater.

Nine of the Soviet farm delegation are scheduled to remain in Minnesota until Thursday when they will go to Chicago.

The Soviet delegation head, Vladimir Matkevich, and two of his colleagues will visit the Ford enterprises in Dearborn.

Weatherman Predicts More of the Same For Today, Tomorrow

KANSAS CITY (AP)—More of the same. That's the weather forecast for today and tomorrow.

The weatherman says skies will be partly cloudy this afternoon and tonight with scattered thunderstorms in the extreme west spreading over most of the west and north portions tonight.

Wednesday will also be partly cloudy with scattered thunderstorms.

Tonight's low temperatures will range from 65-70 in the northwest to 70-75 in the southeast. High Wednesday will be in the lower 80s in the extreme northwest to around 90 in the southeast.

Here are some overnight minimums: Butler 63, Columbia 65, Farmington 60, Joplin 69, Kansas City 68, Kirksville 58, Malden 71, Rolla 61, St. Joseph 68, St. Louis 65, Sedalia 66, Springfield and West Plains 63.

Kansas City to Vote On New Water System

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Kansas City voters will be asked next year to approve a huge bond issue for expansion of the city water system.

The expansion will cost 61 million dollars, but the City Council will propose a 22 million issue for just the first phase of the program.

Water department revenue would retire the bonds. City officials said more mains and new booster stations are needed to meet existing needs and provide for at least the next 20 years.

Accidents

An accident at Third and Missouri at 4:03 p. m. Monday resulted in damages to cars driven by Kenneth Wolf, Tipton, and Frank Wagner, 1420 South Barrett.

The accident occurred as Wolf, driving a 1948 Studebaker sedan, was headed east on Third and as Wagner, driving a 1935 Buick sedan was going north on Missouri.

Damages to the Wolf auto were to the right front end. The Wagner car was damaged on the left front fender.

Both cars were towed from the scene of the accident.

Police made an investigation.

Police Reports

A power mower of the Goodyear Tire Co., found in back of their place by the police, was returned to Goodyear Tuesday morning.

Gene Self, 614 East 11th, reported to the police a red and white Schwinn bicycle was stolen from in front of the "Up-ton Theatre Monday night. It was reported at 11:28 p. m. Monday. It was found at 3:12 a. m. on West Second in the 100 block.

A police officer on the Ohio beat reported seeing a boy riding the bicycle west on Fourth about 11:40 p. m. Monday. A description of the youth was obtained and an investigation is being conducted.

Police Court

Lawrence Mergen, Kansas City, charged with parking contrary to a legal sign forfeited a $2 cash bond.

Robert M. Hall, 1710 South Montau, charged with parking contrary to a legal sign, forfeited a $2 cash bond.

S-Sgt. William C. Childs, Sedalia Air Force Base, charged with disturbing the peace at Booker's, 401 North Montau, was fined $25 by Judge R. L. Weinrich in police court. Childs pleaded guilty to the charge.

There were ten overtime parkers who failed to appear in police court forfeited cash bonds of $1 each and 37 overtime parkers who appeared at police headquarters within the time limit paid the 25-cent fee.

Magistrate Court

Three traffic violators were fined on Tuesday.

Robert B. Burtchett, charged with driving with improper license and no license, pleaded guilty and was fined $15 and costs. Edwin S. Powers, of the Sedalia Air Force Base, pleaded guilty to a charge of careless driving and was fined $25 and costs.

Ray Hays, also of the Air Base, was represented by Fred Wesner in a plea of not guilty to a charge of careless driving. After hearing evidence, the court found him guilty and set the fine at $25 plus costs.

State Patrolman Pete Stohr made all three arrests.

Two Kinds Of 'Sonic Booms'

Recent weather disturbances, which happily brought refreshing rain to a parched Central Missouri, were accompanied by inevitable crackling lightning and restless Thor throwing his hammer around in the clouds.

The boom, boom of the bouncing hammer was frightening enough to cause some of the fearful to seek shelter under beds.

Most persons are familiar with storm "booms" but how many have ever heard a "sonic boom?" What with the Sedalia Air Force Base nearby there may have been a sonic boom in this area. If so then many of us have missed the reaction, probably because the noise would have had to come from a visiting plane rather than those huge ones attached to the base.

Sonic booms are made by air waves set in motion by an object like an airplane moving through the atmosphere at the speed of sound or faster. When these sounds are created by a supersonic airplane, the sound may resemble a single or double explosion, or it may seem to be only a distant momentary rumble.

Many Central Missourians may have heard a sonic boom and mistaken it for sounds of a thunderstorm. But just to be sure some of us would like to hear a known sonic boom to determine if there is any difference between it and thunder.

Sonic booms are supposed to be nuisances and scare people more than thunder, especially when a boom comes out of a clear sky. Somehow a boom in a clear sky is more frightening than one coming out of an overcast.

Sonic booms are said to create property damage if planes are flying too low when they break the sound barrier. They upset nervous people, too.

One of these sonic booms got in the hair of residents in the St. Charles area June 15 and in way of explanation the McDonnell Aircraft Corporation of St. Louis, which makes fighter planes, is acquainting the public with what the booms are all about and how steps are constantly taken to prevent avoidable noise too close to population centers.

This new thunder is an unwanted by-product nature insists on giving us with every supersonic flight, according to McDonnell's public relations department. When you hear the sound it is well to remember it is created only by vital defense flights required by military leaders.

Very likely Sedalians and Central Missourians will come to accept the sonic boom as a new and necessary sound in our lives, as much in the interest of national defense, as the sonic booms following lightning bolts during storms which bring the good rain for our crops and reservoirs.

The World Today—

Man Has Chance to Cease Being Foolish

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—If you lived on a star and had been watching man on earth through the ages you could not help but cross your fingers as you looked down upon the world's atomic scientists meeting this week in Geneva.

You might wish them well. But you'd have to wonder: "Will they make it this time?" For many times from the perspective of a star, as you watched the generations of man, you must have said aloud: "Why does he always have to make a fool of himself?"

There were the empires that withered — the Egyptian, the Greek, the Roman, the French, the German, the British. With them were their wars, always fresh testimonials to man's inability to get along with man.

But now man — driven by his conceits and inferiorities, his primal urges and studied cunning, his neuroses, and the endless restlessness that blessed and cursed him through the ages — at last has reached a peak.

Now at last man, in the knowledge of the atom that he holds in his head, has the power to destroy himself and every other living thing on the face of the earth if he cannot finally learn to live peacefully.

It is almost as if the whole history of man's combined wisdom and folly has been heading inevitably for the mid-20th century when, because he has learned too much, he is faced with the last choice between living and dying altogether.

Delegations from 72 countries — including leading atomic scientists from the United States, Russia, Britain, France, Canada — opened their atoms-for-peace conference in Geneva this week.

The meeting had its origin in

President Eisenhower's invitation — delivered before the United Nations on Dec. 8, 1953 — to the world's nations to pool their knowledge of the atom's peaceful uses for the good of mankind.

If the nations can go on from this point and exchange their knowledge of what the atom can do — in creating power, in medicine, in agriculture, in industry — man has a future undreamed of before the bomb fell on Hiroshima in 1945.

But will they go into a real exchange of ideas? And, if they do, will they be able to continue to do it? At the moment they meet, other scientists back home in the United States and Russia are devising uses for the atom in war.

The Geneva meeting is being held during a strange lull in the cold war — a period of almost cordial relations between the East and West — when the big powers are talking of keeping the atom for peace only and abolishing it for war.

It is not this meeting, important as it is and could be, that will decide whether man has found real wisdom at last or is a complete fool. The many meetings which decide that will be those which seek a way to outlaw atomic weapons and atomic war and leave the atom thereafter only for peace.

Hal Boyle's Column—

President Can't Find Room For All His Farm Presents

By ED CREAUGH
(For HAL BOYLE)

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—If part-time farmer Dwight D. Eisenhower holds onto that city job in Washington for another five years or so, he may have to move out of his farmhouse.

The way people keep giving him things for the 189-acre farm, the time could come when there wouldn't be enough room left for the President, his wife and his golf clubs.

Cows, farm equipment, furniture —almost everywhere the President goes somebody gives him something. And Ike Eisenhower goes a lot of places.

Nobody has troubled to keep books but it's known that he has received at least eight head of livestock, mostly Black Angus, since word got around he was interested in building a herd.

This is in addition to, among other things:

Two pigs, one of them named Pansy.
A flock of chickens.
A chain saw.
A spice box for Mrs. Eisenhower.

An antique sofa and an equally antique fireplace mantel, both presented by the White House staff.
A 30-foot flagpole and a hand-eagle.

A silver Paul Revere bowl.
And, most recently, from the American Legion Boys Nation, a 2½-horsepower cultivator.

Probably the most elaborate gift has been a complete flower garden, set up at a Washington flower show last year and later moved en toto to the Eisenhower farm on the edge of Gettysburg battlefield. Right pretty one, too. Serpentine brick wall and everything.

All sorts of people bestow gifts on the President—livestock breeders, Republican clubs — even Democrats. The latest Black Angus heifer, Blue Bonnet, was presented at a Women's National Press Club affair by Democratic congressional leaders Sam Rayburn and Lyndon Johnson of Texas.

Usually the people who make these gifts have nothing to gain from the White House — except, sometimes, a little incidental publicity. The makers of one piece of farm equipment, for instance, were overjoyed that their trade name showed up in news photographs.

Giving things to presidents is an old American custom — and one that the presidents sometimes regard wryly. "That's the way it always is," Harry S. Truman once remarked, "people wait until you have everything in the world and then they give you something."

Eisenhower likewise tossed off a good-humoredly ironic remark when he wound up a New England trip laden down with everything from two calves to a little evergreen tree — now planted on the farm—from Skowhegan, Me.

"I have accumulated so many gifts," he said, "that I am moved to remind the chairman there is one very important thing he forgot. He should have provided a truck to carry them in."

Only a fraction of the gifts made to Eisenhower are for his farm. "Official" gifts, such as art works from eminent foreign visitors, stay in the White House or go to such public places as the Smithsonian Institution. Others go to the Eisenhower museum in Abilene, Kan.

In an average year the President will receive such oddly assorted items as a 100-pound cake in the form of a Christmas tree, a made-on - a-sewing-machine tapestry portrait of himself and Mrs.

As Sedalia Sees It—

Today's Townsend Plan Has Missouri Supporters

By Esther Van Wagoner Tuffy
Democrat-Capitol
Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Whatever happened to the Townsend plan? The original depression-born proposal to retire everybody at $200 a month at the age of 60 may have died, but the founder, Dr. Francis E. Townsend is very much alive at 89 and still thinks he is right!

He's still working for his plan, headquartered out of his Washington office with branch offices in 22 states. Since the death of his wife some four years ago he makes a continuing circuit of these regional centers.

Expansion of the social security system rather took the big impetus from behind the Townsend Plan and gave a lot of Congressmen an "out" in districts where Dr. Townsend was strongly supported. But this extension in benefits and coverage (for which Dr. Townsend takes some credit) is seen as "a poor excuse" for the ideal embodied in his plan.

Briefly, today's Townsend plan, which had its beginnings back in the early 1930s, proposes a 2 percent tax on all gross business income over $250 a month the estimated $2 billion to be divided up equally among 18 million eligibles who would be expected to spend it within the following 30 days.

Of the 60 sponsors of the Townsend bill there are three from Missouri: Lenor K. Sullivan, St. Louis; Morgan M. Moulder, Camden, A. S. J. Carnahan, Ellinsore.

The state director is S. A. Miskimins of Joplin.

Dr. Jordan Says—

One-Time Heart Villain Bows to Medical Progress

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

Mrs. W., wants to hear about subacute bacterial endocarditis, from which one of her relatives is suffering. This comparatively common form of heart disease is one on which enormous progress has been made in recent years.

It is a disorder in which the blood stream and valves of the heart are invaded by germs of the streptococcus family. These produce growths or vegetations on the heart valves which may break off and be carried by the blood to other parts of the body.

It was formerly a fatal disease, but now most of those who get it can be successfully treated.

As a rule, subacute bacterial endocarditis begins gradually. The patient may first show signs of easy tiring. There is loss of energy and lack of pep. Later on there are likely to be chilly sensations, sweating and fever. Sometimes muscle or joint pains and headache are present. These symptoms may appear alone or in various combinations.

Gradual loss of weight, appetite and nausea often appear early. The victims are frequently pale, with the skin often showing a slightly yellow tinge. As the disease progresses, other symptoms and complications appear.

In the past, many treatments were tried, but almost always with disappointing results. At first, even the sulfa drugs and penicillin seemed disappointing.

Now, however, most patients who develop subacute bacterial endocarditis, (provided that the disease is diagnosed early) recover if they are given large enough doses of penicillin, perhaps with other preparations, over a long enough period of time.

There are still some problems: the streptococcus causing the infection are not all alike; that is, there are different strains. Some of these strains are most sensitive to the action of penicillin than others. Those which are resistant are much harder to eliminate from the body.

Also, if the patient is treated at first without enough penicillin, the strain of streptococcus causing that particular infection may become resistant to penicillin and therefore less likely to respond to treatment. Combinations of penicillin with other germ attacking substances are used frequently.

It is a real triumph that a terrible disease like subacute bacterial endocarditis, about which physicians were once so helpless, now can be cured in most instances. The remaining difficulties are being gradually mastered.

It is tremendously important, of course, that diagnosis (which is not always easy) should be made early, since this also affects the outcome.

Conflicts-In-Interest Upset Congress

WASHINGTON — Basically the conflict-of-interest that forced Secretary of the Air Force Talbott out of the cabinet is also what poisons the political bloodstream through the lobbies of Washington.

There is hardly a senator or congressman in Washington who does not have a conflict of interest. He has to choose whether he will serve the people who voted for him or the big campaign contributors who put up the money to win those votes.

Talbott was serving two masters — the Air Force and his own private company which sought juicy contracts to do personnel engineering for manufacturers of Air Force equipment.

But when northern congressmen voted for a natural gas bill to increase the price to northern housewives, yet simultaneously failed to pass a badly needed school bill, many of them were voting because money had been poured into their campaigns or their party's campaigns by the gas-oil-utility lobby.

The family of Congressman Oren Harris of Arkansas, who introduced the natural gas bill, was the recipient of one interesting little favor. During the war, when the most precious possession of a woman was nylon stockings, Mrs. Harris received a generous supply from Ham Moses, head of Arkansas Power and Light. Harris, however, has always played close to the gas-oil-power lobbies.

Chief difference between Talbott and many congressmen is that he was caught. His record of trying to influence defense contracts because of campaign contributions, however, has not entirely caught up with him and is equally serious.

The Senate subcommittee investigating Talbott did not go into these contracts. In fact, it was not anxious to investigate Talbott at all, and did so only after receiving a tip from a very high business executive and after a member of the full committee had purposely leaked the official documents to the New York Times to force the subcommittee's hand. Even such crusading senators as Symington of Missouri and Jackson of Washington dropped Talbott like a hot potato and almost kissed him on the cheek when he left the witness stand.

Perhaps this complacency was because of the nagging knowledge that nearly every senator and congressman likewise is caught in a "conflict of interests" almost as serious as that which trapped Talbott.

Reason is the cost of being elected to high office. The 1950 Republican senatorial primary in Pennsylvania, for instance, cost the two sides a total of $1,170,000. The Democratic primary in Florida that year was estimated by the St. Petersburg Times as costing $2,000,000.

Where do these huge sums come from? Not from average voters but from men with special favors to get from government — utility magnates, oil kings, liquor sachems, timber moguls, railroad bosses. The so-called "limit" of $5,000 per candidate is violated repeatedly by attributing each $5,000 to a different member of the donor's family. Some infants have given $5,000 to major candidates before the infant was out of the bassinets!

The voters seldom know all this. They realize vast sums are spent on TV, radio, signboards, brochures, and paid workers, but they don't know the source of the money. Yet a "conflict of interest" is created, just as definitely as in the case of Secretary Talbott. Can Senator Butler of Maryland, for instance, vote impartially on a bill to increase the price of natural gas when he received $10,000 in campaign money from oil-gas tycoon Clint Murchison and Mrs. Murchison, and $5,000 from Jack Porter of Houston?

Attorney General Brownell has ordered grand jury investigations of spending by the United Automobile Workers in the 1954 election in Michigan. The theory is that funds were used from union general funds in violation of the Taft-Hartley act when Senator Pat McNamara appeared as a guest of the auto workers' program.

It is, of course, just as possible for labor to be a special interest as industry. Yet it's almost impossible for a trade union to conceal its contribution, while the corporations conceal them in every campaign. They merely pay a big bonus to some executive or lawyer, who in turn contributes this bonus to the campaign kitty of some politician who is running the corporation's errands in public life. This loophole is not available to unions.

The entire situation has riddled Congress with so many "conflicts of interest" just as reprehensible as Talbott's, that many administrative officials, like Talbott, wonder why they must be above suspicion when their accusers in Congress are so saddled with financial obligations. What's the Remedy?

Three members of the U. S. Senate have been advocating reforms, as follows:

No. 1: Senator Tom Hennings, Democrat of Missouri — is pushing a law to tighten the reporting of election campaign contributions so the general public will know who the small group of financial contributors are who influence policy for 180,000,000 people. Although Hennings' bill was acted upon favorably by the Senate Rules Committee, almost solid Republican opposition left it high and dry as Congress adjourned.

No. 2: Senator Wayne Morse, Democrat of Oregon — Introduced a bill at my suggestion in 1947, requiring every member of Congress to declare his net worth and all other sources of annual income. The immediate motive behind the Morse bill in 1947 was this column's expose of the cotton speculations of Senator Elmer Thomas, Oklahoma Democrat, when he was chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee. Morse re-introduced this bill this year.

No. 3: Morse's young colleague, Senator Dick Neuberger — has been reviving a proposal which Teddy Roosevelt first made in 1908 and which later was pushed by George Killion, treasurer of the Democratic National Committee. Teddy recommended that both major parties receive their campaign financing out of the U. S. treasury and that private donations be barred.

No. 4: Philip Graham, publisher of the Washington Post and Times-Herald — urges a system of small donations from average citizens. He points out that sums of from $1 to perhaps $50 or $100 never could put a candidate under such severe obligation that he would violate his convictions or his oath of office. It is when the donations soar to the $5,000 figure and over that a candidate becomes saddled with the "conflict of interests."

Another column on the backstage lobbies and how they influence almost everything from war contracts to the price of ten-penny nails will follow soon.

Little League Upsets

The Little League baseball clubs have done a lot for the players, but they have also created changes and problems within the family circle.

The family who happens to have a good shortstop, a prize pitcher, or even just an ordinary member of the team, must adjust its whole schedule of living to the requirements of that important young member of the community. If there are early night games, the family dinner must be served in time to digest the meal before junior starts running around. The dishes may not get washed because the whole family has to be in the cheering section. No bridge games for Mom and Dad; no golf for poor old Pop. As for going off for a weekend, nothing doing during the Little League season!

No sacrifice is too great, however, because of the fun and good sportsmanship the little leaguer gets out of it, to say nothing of the rewards in family pride.

Oh, well, it is all in a good cause. Maybe the little fellow is all-star caliber and his family must stick it out regardless of any other interest. He won't be "little" very long and what fun he is having now!

A. B. Chandler Tries Binding Party Wounds

VERSAILLES, Ky. (AP) — A. B. (Happy) Chandler, with a political past and future built on a smiling but indomitable personality, refused to relax today while enjoying his second Democratic nomination for governor.

The energetic former governor, U. S. senator and baseball commissioner—who said "Never have I been so humble and so grateful"—worked to bind up intraparty wounds from an old-fashioned blood-letting primary.

After preliminary plans for the general election will come a vacation, when "all I want to do is sleep," Chandler said.

Three pounds heavier after a grueling political comeback fight to overcome a state administration firmly entrenched for eight years, Chandler, 57, confidently predicted victory in November.

He flashed the smile which has been a trademark since earning him the nickname "Happy" as a boy and said, "I am certain that many thousands of registered Republicans will find our program worthy of their support."

He expressed confidence Democrats will "close ranks" for the election despite his vigorous attacks on the administrations of Gov. Lawrence Wetherby and his predecessor, U. S. Sen. Earle Clements.

They backed Judge Bert T. Combs for the nomination. Combs also had the support of Sen. Alben Barkley, the former vice president who handed Chandler his only political defeat—in a senatorial primary.

Chandler's victory against such formidable opposition came 20 years after his first stunning political upset, when he won the gubernatorial nomination over administration-backed Thomas Rhea.

It was won with a 10-month, 900-speech campaign in which Chandler took only one day off, exclusive of Sundays.

Diplomat, Chinese Arrive in Junk From Trans-Pacific Trip

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A 78-foot sailing junk nosed into San Francisco Bay last night after a 53-day voyage across 6,000 miles of the ocean from Formosa. Aboard were five Chinese and an American diplomat.

This is the end of the trip for Calvin E. Mehlert, whose home is Fresno, Calif. He plans to return to his post as U. S. vice consul at Taipei, Formosa. The Chinese, who own the vessel, plan to go on.

"We hope to take the junk around the world," said Chung Yu-ling, the skipper.

Mehlert was dubious. He said that before the teakwood vessel could leave for New York "all the planking in the bottom has to be replaced and the mast strengthened and that takes money and they don't have any money."

The Chinese work on Nationalist motorized fishing vessels out of Formosa. They said this is the first "actual sailing experience for any of us."

Casualty List Given Newsmen Before Kin Notified by Pentagon

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Newsmen in Korea today were given the names of 10 soldiers killed in a truck accident before all next of kin had been notified. The Pentagon said it would try to learn the cause of this breach of Army policy.

U. S. 8th Army headquarters in Seoul identified the casualties, members of the 24th Division killed in a truck accident last Saturday near Kimpo Air Base, northwest of the Korean capital.

Mothers of two of the soldiers, when told by newsmen of the Seoul announcement, said they had not been notified earlier. One said she doubted her son had been killed.

An Army spokesman here said in response to an inquiry that the adjutant general, who notifies the next of kin, had received the names of only four of the casualties.

The spokesman said the Army would determine why the names of the others had not reached the Pentagon. A communications delay could be responsible. In Tokyo, Army headquarters indicated all the names had been forwarded.

Mrs. Wagner Is Notified Of CPA Title

Mrs. Frank Wagner, 1420 South Barrett, a partner in the firm of Taylor-Wagner Co., public accountants, has been notified by the Missouri State Board of Accountancy, she is being issued a certificate of a Certified Public Accountant.

Known in business circles as Mrs. Shirley W. Wagner, has for a number of years been registered with the State of Missouri as a Public Accountant. At present is a Director of the Public Accountant Association of Missouri.

Having completed necessary qualifications the Missouri Board announced the issuing of the Certificate today.

Mrs. Wagner and Gene E. Taylor, Springfield, formed the Taylor-Wagner Public Accountant firm several years ago. Mr. Taylor is a Certified Public Accountant and with Mrs. Taylor also a C.P.A., the firm will now be known as Taylor-Wagner Co., Certified Public Accountants, in as much as all partners are holders of the State Certificate.

The firm has offices both in Springfield and in Sedalia. Here they are located in the Crown Drug Co., building, 107 1/2 West Third.

Sen. Johnson Expects To Return to Senate For January Session

CHICAGO (AP) — Two top Democrats meet here tonight for a talk that may have an important bearing on the 1956 Democratic presidential nomination contest.

Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, arriving today for the 47th annual Governors Conference, dines tonight with former Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, the 1952 Democratic nominee.

There are indications that Harriman would like to know privately what Stevenson has been unwilling as yet to say publicly—whether he again will be a candidate.

Stephen A. Mitchell, former Democratic national chairman and a close associate of Stevenson, said in an interview that if Harriman wants to know Stevenson's decision "he certainly can find out."

For himself, Mitchell said he has no doubt that "Stevenson will be running against President Eisenhower next year with a lot better chance of winning than he had in 1952."

Explosion Hits Plane Fastest in the World, Flying Under a B29

EDWARDS, Calif. (AP) — An explosion rocked the world's fastest rocket plane seconds before a mother ship was to release it high above the Mojave Desert.

Research pilot Joseph A. Walker, 34, scrambled up into the mother plane, a B29, and the rocket plane—the sub-winged Bell X-1A—was dropped, pilotless, onto a bombing range from 30,000 feet.

Ike Says GOP Has Furthered Civil Rights

WASHINGTON, (AP) — President Eisenhower said the Republican party has proved itself a "vigorous and productive champion of the ideals and purposes of Lincoln" on civil rights.

He said that during his administration the nation has advanced far in application of the belief in "the equal dignity of all our people, whatever their racial origin or background may be; in their equal right to freedom and opportunity and the benefits of our common citizenship."

"All of us realize that much must still be done," he said. In New York, the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People said the President has a "good personal record of accomplishment on civil rights, particularly in the District of Columbia."

The NAACP added, however, that Eisenhower has not recommended any civil rights legislation to either the last Congress or the present one and "moreover, the President actively opposed efforts to get civil rights guarantees into pending legislation by way of the amendment process."

Eisenhower's remarks were in a letter released yesterday by the Republican National Committee. The letter was to Val J. Washington, director of minorities in the committee.

Washington had reported to Eisenhower that "the Republican party has fulfilled each of its specific promises on civil rights during the 1952 campaign."

His report cited the ending of segregation in some public places in the nation's capital, elimination of bias and "Jim Crow" in federal departments and bureaus, appointment of Negroes to important federal positions, strengthening the civil rights sections of the Justice Department and enforcement of nondiscriminatory clauses of the Taft-Hartley law.

that the B29 was unable to land with the damaged rocket plane hanging from its belly for fear the rocket, still carrying highly volatile fuel, might explode again.

The blast occurred yesterday 70 seconds before the B29 was to release the X-1A on a test flight above Edwards Air Force Base.

Police Getting Tips By Hundreds on Death Of Mrs. William Allen

KANSAS CITY, (AP) — Officers checking hundreds of tips in the slaying of Mrs. Wilma Allen have failed to turn up any productive leads on her killer.

Chief of Police Bernard C. Brannon said last night that although no real leads had developed thus far, several hundred bits of information were being pieced together in an attempt to establish a pattern.

The FBI, state and local authorities are participating in the search for the slayer of Mrs. Allen, whose nude body was found Sunday in a pasture 20 miles southwest of Kansas City. She was the 34-year-old wife of William R. Allen Jr., wealthy automobile dealer, and the mother of two small children.

Girl, 16, to Fight Annulment by Mother

WINNETKA, Ill. (AP) — A 16-year-old bride says she loves her Army corporal, whose letters from overseas won her heart, and she will have no part of her mother's suit to annul their marriage.

Mrs. Louise Sterling, widow of a sporting goods company vice president, filed a complaint charging Cpl. Stephen Doerner Jr., 21, with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. She acted after Doerner and her daughter Barbara Jean eloped last Wednesday and were married at Shawneetown, in southern Illinois.

Barbara Jean allegedly falsified her age.

Pensioners Asked by VA To Check Pay

Veterans and the widows and children of deceased veterans receiving pension from Veterans Administration should report immediately any increase in income which would raise their annual income above the statutory limitations.

This warning was sounded today by W. F. Fidler of the local Veterans Administration office. To remain eligible for pension under the law, pensioners of World War I, World War II and of the Korean conflict may not have an annual income from other sources exceeding $1,400 without dependents, or $2,700 with wife or minor children.

VA checks the annual income of those receiving pension through the medium of annual questionnaires which are distributed about January 1 every year.

Later, if the person receiving the pension fails to notify VA promptly of an increase in income which raises his annual income above the statutory limit, payments will be discontinued retroactively to the first of the year.

This creates an overpayment Fidler said, and is subject to recovery by the Government.

Widows and children receiving pension can save themselves inconvenience and possibly money by notifying VA promptly of any increase in income which would put them above the statutory limitations.

Pensions are payable to veterans for permanent and total disabilities of a nonservice-connected nature and to the widows and children of deceased veterans for non-service-connected death, proving the applicants are otherwise eligible.

YOUR EYES AND VISUAL FUNCTIONS

Undoubtedly many people in our state have been tempted to buy glasses at the spectacular sales advertised now and then. The temptation to save money is great, especially in these times when the budget is strained by the higher costs of automobiles, homes and the many things which are a "must" in our daily lives.

For those who are tempted to purchase spectacles at these "fabulous" sales, the Missouri Optometric Association offers these suggestions to be considered carefully.

A number of our states do not permit such sales of glasses, because it is believed that they are often an indirect cause of acquired blindness. The purchaser of such glasses may delay too long in seeking competent eye care from the professional optometrist or ophthalmologist and, in so doing, may not receive needed medical, dental or visual care early enough.

There is really nothing unusual about the cheap prices advertised in these so called sales. Lenses and frames can be, and are made in various degrees of quality just the same as any other material thing. It should be remembered always that the most important thing about getting glasses is the examination or visual analysis made. Many practitioners think from four to eight carefully made examinations constitute a heavy day's work. Others seem willing to examine and prescribe glasses for from twenty to forty. Such so called examinations are known as "quickies".

Serious minded, conscientious men dedicated to eye and vision care have many reasons to believe that a cheap pair of glasses is about the last thing a person can afford to buy.

All-Stars Are Favored To Emerge With Grid Victory Over The Pros

Brown Coach Fears Power Of All-Stars

CHICAGO (AP)—The College All Stars should whip the Cleveland Browns at Soldier Field Friday night if past performances mean anything.

The professional champions will be out to hand the stars their fifth straight defeat, a feat that has yet to be accomplished in the series.

The last time the pros went after their fifth straight was in 1943 when the All Stars, headed by Otto Graham, Glenn Dobbs, Bob Steuber and Pat Harder, dumped the Washington Redskins 27-7.

Since the game was inaugurated in 1934 when the all stars and Chicago Bears battled to a scoreless tie, the pros have won 13, lost 6 and tied 2.

This year the stars will be bolstered by an all-professional coaching staff headed by Curly Lambeau, pro football pioneer at Green Bay and former Chicago Cardinal and Washington Redskins coach.

Going over past All Star victories the fact that sticks out is that outstanding players in each triumph went on to stardom in the pro ranks.

In 1930 such stalwarts as Charley Justice, Fred Morrison, Gordon Soltau and Eddie Labaron led a 17-7 triumph over Philadelphia.

George Ratterman, Buddy Young and Charley Trippi were key men in 1947's 16-0 victory over the Chicago Bears. The previous year Graham, Harder and Erloy (Crazylegs) Hirsch pounded Los Angeles, 16-0.

Cecil Isbell was one of the big guns in the 23-16 triumph over Washington in 1938 and Sammy Baugh's pass to Gaynell Tinsley was all the stars needed to dump Green Bay in 1937, 6-0.

Again the lineup is studded with name players from throughout the nation.

There are such "can't miss as pros" as end Max Boydson of Oklahoma; Alan (The Horse) Ameche, Wisconsin's great full-back; Dick Moegele, Rice's break-away runner; Notre Dame's Ralph Guglielmi, and Southern Methodist's Frank Eidom, just to name a few.

The line, in Lambeau's words "will be just as big as theirs and they won't be able to push us around."

Bolstering the forward wall will be Arkansas' Bud Brooks, Sid Fournet of LSU, Matt Hazeltine, California's highly publicized center, Sam Palumbo and Frank Varichione of Notre Dame, Pittsburgh's Eldred Kremer, Buck Lansford of Texas, and Miami of Ohio's gigantic Tommy Jones.

As Lambeau says, "we have the material this year."

Coach Paul Brown says his National football league champs "expect to run into an all-star squad the like of which no other pro club has had to face," when they meet the collegians in Chicago Friday night.

Brown says his national football league champs "expect to run into an all-star squad the like of which no other pro club has had to face" when they meet the collegians in Chicago Friday night.

By that, Brown means he has been impressed by and has impressed his 40-man Cleveland Browns squad with these things: That this year's all-star team is the first to be guided by coaches with pro football experience, and also the first to be selected by the coaches instead of the sponsors.

That his scouts report the collegians looked good in their scrimmage with the Chicago Cardinals last Friday.

The collegians' coaching staff, headed by Curly Lambeau includes Steve Owen, Hamp Pool and Hunk Anderson. All of them have pro league experience and all know the Browns' personnel.

With free substitutions restored after last year's reversion to the college rule, Lambeau will use offensive and defensive platoons. Brown believes Lambeau will have the best organized all-star team to take the field in years—organized especially to cope with the Browns.

Baseball Roundup--

Squeeze Is Forming Quick In American Pennant Race

By ED WILKS
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Call 'em critical, crucial or just plain crazy, man, but a pair of three-game series that open tonight could be the beginning of the end for New York, Boston, Cleveland or Detroit in the frenzied American League pennant race.

While first-place Chicago tries to get the suddenly not-so-listless Kansas City Athletics back in perspective, Boston rumbles into New York and Cleveland plays host to Detroit.

The Yankees are just three percentage points behind the White Sox. Third-place Cleveland is half a game back. Fourth-place Boston is 1½ behind. Detroit, in fifth, is 5½ short.

The schedule puts on the squeeze and something's got to give.

The Yanks and Red Sox must play each other 12 times yet. The Indians and Tigers have a dozen scraps left too. And in 10 days, while the White Sox play six games with sixth-place Kansas City, half of those 12 dates will be completed.

What's more, all four of the clubs chasing the White Sox must face the other contenders in more than half of their remaining games.

Chicago has the best spot—with 48 games to go, but only 23 against the next four clubs. Detroit is the worst off, slated to play 31 of its remaining 45 games against the first division.

After his Yanks lost series to Chicago and Cleveland and split with Detroit on their current home stand, Manager Casey Stengel today tagged the Red Sox as "May-be the toughest yet."

In yesterday's only game, the Brooklyn Dodgers lost 1-0 to Chicago with the usually unreachably Don Newcombe shut out from what could have been his 19th victory. It was Newk's second defeat of the season, and both have been to the Cubs. This time it was a home run by Gene Baker, who had half of Chicago's six hits, that beat the big right-hander.

Sad Sam Jones was the winner on a four-hitter, although he was in hot water with six walks. Jones, now 10-15, fanned seven while getting his first victory since July 3.

The decision gave the Cubs a sweep of the three-game series—their first over the Dodgers in Wrigley Field since 1947.

Hamms Beer Plays KofC At Housel

The Hamms Beer Club will go to field against the Knights of Columbus tonight at Housel Park in an important game which may decide the National League championship.

If the Hamms Club wins they will be the National League champs, however, if the Knights win the other games they have to be made up later.

This game has been rescheduled from a rained out tilt earlier in the season.

Monday night the Odd Fellows defeated the Hudson Hornets in a wild scoring affair which brought the Odd Fellows a 21-6 victory.

This was a no league affair and went nine innings. The Odd Fellows had nine hits and seven errors while the Hornets had 13 hits and 11 errors.

Cards Face Worst Set Since 1919

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals, staggering along with an undependable bullpen and little batting punch, have just 48 games left to prevent what could be the club's worst National League finish since 1919.

Branch Rickey, as field manager that year, brought his club in seventh. Four Cardinal clubs have finished sixth since the World War I days, including Eddie Stanky's 1954 model, but none has hit the No. 7 spot.

The Cardinals and Harry (The Hat) Walker now stand with a 46-60 mark, 26 games off the pace and 3½ games behind sixth-place Cincinnati. And they've lost 10 of the last 13 games.

St. Louis, since and including the 1919 finish, has been in the league's second division only nine times against 27 first-division berths.

Walker, who took over from the ousted Stanky during the current season, said today:

"Relief pitching has been the big problem. And it doesn't make any difference who's in there."

The Hat, after throwing seven pitchers into a losing cause against Philadelphia Sunday, held his hurling staff after school for 90 minutes with a closed-door conference.

After the meeting, which he described as "one of the best we ever had," he said the trouble appeared to be an attempt to pitch "too fine." He was hopeful the meeting "may have relaxed them. It might have helped a bit."

With the pitching collapse has come a slump at the plate. Bill Virdon, rookie outfielder, has been the only consistent clutch hitter. He's batted in 9 of the 19 runs scored over the past five games.

Stan Musial, the club's No. 1 slugger, in the last 18 games has brought home only six runs.

Purse Is $156,000-- World Champ Of the Links To Be Chosen

CHICAGO (AP)—A team of eight foreign pros and their U.S. counterparts today tee off in international cup matches—a sort of calm before the golfing storm strikes Tam O'Shanter Thursday.

After two days of team competition, golf's greatest run for the money opens—a 72-hole tourney dubbed the "world championship of golf."

The winner receives this bonanza: $50,000 in cash, a guaranteed, expense-paid tour of 55 exhibitions at $1,000 each plus an option of 50 more, and a $1,000 caddie fee.

The potential jackpot is worth a staggering $156,000—or about $573 per shot if it takes a 14-under-par 274 to win as predicted by Doug Ford.

Drawing the favorite's role this time is 33-year-old Ford, who has the hottest streak of the season. He capped his recent PGA victory with a triumph in the All-American at Tam Sunday.

Limestone Booms

ALPENA, Mich. (AP)—The nation's largest source for limestone is the claim of the lower Great Lakes area, following the reopening of the Stoneport quarry of the Presque Isle Corp.—an investment of 15 million dollars. The quarry is one of several in the area shipping limestone to the nation's steel plants.

Racers Alert To Gang Up On D.B. Bunch

D. B. Bunch, of Webb City, will be the target for the fast "open competition" modified stock car race, Wednesday night at the Golden Valley Speedway, Clinton. Not only are competing drivers anxious to stop Bunch's hot streak, capturing four consecutive feature races, but an added incentive has been put up by the Speedway owner. Feeling that Bunch is almost unbeatable, Col. John W. Smith has posted $15 cash award to the driver who defeats the heavy-footed speedster in the 25-lap feature race. Bunch, will be piloting that fast Doodle Bug, car No. 75, from Miami, Okla.

The Golden Valley Speedway is, also, offering a $20 cash award to the driver breaking the track record, 15.5 held jointly by Willie Crane, of Springfield and D. B. Bunch.

To give some extra stiff competition will be Jim McMichael, youthful driver of Carthage. Jim has been having mechanical trouble with his Doodle Bug, car No. 66, so fans feel as if he is sure to "click," Wednesday night.

Paul Curry, of Carthage and Jay Moore, of Pittsburg, Kansas ranking third and fourth in point standings will be among the top finishers.

Other standouts, Bud McKee and Mac McGuire, of Springfield, Crockett, "The Rocket," Thomason and Joe Dennis, Clinton, plus many more top star pilots.

Time trials will begin at 7:30 p.m. Trophy dash for the four fastest qualifiers will begin the racing events, and a 25-lap feature for the fastest drivers on the card will highlight the evenings racing program. A $500 guaranteed purse every Wednesday night.

Dates to remember at the Golden Valley Speedway are: Wednesday, August 31, Wednesday, Sept. 7, and Wednesday, Sept. 14. The A-B-C Championship racing dates. The final race, "C", on Sept. 14, will be a $1,000 guaranteed purse, lap money and beautiful trophies. So, watch for more in detail on these three Big Races.

Chiefs Play Here Against Holden

The Sedalia Ban Johnson Chiefs will take the field tonight at Liberty Park at 8:30 p.m. against the Holden Chiefs, fourth place winners at the national semi-pro tournament held in Wichita, Kan., last year.

The Chiefs who have several members of their club living in Kansas City and other scattered points around the state have set the time one half an hour later than usual so that all the team will be able to arrive at the same time.

The game tonight is important to the local Chiefs mainly as a practice session before their game Thursday night against the Jefferson City Bears, who presently lead the Central Missouri Ban Johnson League.

Should the Chiefs win from the Bears they could then at least tie them for first place in the league by winning the rest of the games in the season.

Another important game is scheduled for Ban Johnson teams tonight. The Bears will journey to Boonville for a game with the Cadillacs, who gave the Bears one of their losses in the first half of the season.

Should the Bears lose this game it would be possible for the Chiefs to take over first place in the league by defeating the Bears here Thursday night.

Golf and Gallantry Don't Mix

MIAMI (AP)—Chivalry is not dead in Florida. But it did take a beating.

When a woman's golf ball landed in the rough at the Biltmore Golf Course, Earl Dymond pulled a Sir Walter Raleigh. He held back a bush so she could get a good smack at the ball.

But Dymond got the smack instead. Her swing connected squarely with his head.

Famed Artist Now Drawing Movie Ads

By JAMES BACON
(For Bob Thomas)

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—If you find your eyes lingering on the newspaper advertisements for "The Kentuckian," you have good appreciation of art.

The sketch of Burt Lancaster with boy and dog was done by Thomas Hart Benton, one of America's finest and most controversial artists.

How did Hollywood lure Benton?

Producer Harold Hecht said he always had admired Benton's work and knew that he was the one artist who wouldn't come up with the conventional in advertising art.

Hecht also remembered Benton's famous statement which got him fired from his teaching job at the Kansas City Art Institute in 1941. At that time, Benton said:

"I'd rather sell my paintings to bawdy houses and saloons—even to women's clubs—than have them hung in art museums."

Hecht figured that anyone who would make a statement like that might be ripe for a movie offer. The artist was.

Of course, they money was good too. Hecht offered a $6,500 commission for the picture plus a few thousand more in expenses and any future royalties on prints and lithographs.

But even that fee—more than some of the old masters made in a lifetime—wasn't able to hold Benton at first.

On the first day of sketching, the 65-year-old Benton made an appointment with Lancaster at 7 o'clock one evening. Lancaster, both the star and the director of the movie, was two hours late.

As the big actor, dressed in buckskins and still wearing makeup, strode hurriedly into a hotel at Owensboro, Ky., where the picture was made, he found Benton leaving.

The artist had packed his bags and called a cab for the airport, intending to chuck the whole deal by flying home to Kansas City.

Lancaster, who isn't used to pleading with people, jumped in the cab and did a fast-talk job on Benton. By the time the cab reached the airport, the artist was pacified.

But was late for no more appointments with Benton. The two became fast friends.

Martin, Lewis Agree To Continue Working

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—Martin and Lewis say they're going to keep on being Martin and Lewis.

After weeks of feuding, Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis met yesterday in the office of Paramount boss Y. Frank Freeman. Afterward the studio said that the pair "agreed to continue on as America's highest paid comedy team."

There had been talk of a splitup. Some said the two hadn't spoken to one another recently. Yesterday they did. But Martin said later:

"Not too much was said. We both agreed to fulfill the contracts, go back to work, and try and make the best of everything."

Lewis wasn't available for comment. It had been reported that one cause of the friction was that Martin thought he was becoming merely a foil for his partner's humor.

Stowaway Gets One Week on the Coast

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Although a 16-year-old Hawaiian girl stowaway is going to be sent back home, she'll have at least a week in California.

Jocelyn Joan Pilapil is charged with delinquency by "secreting herself and remaining aboard" the Canadian destroyer Albatross.

The U. S. Commissioner ordered her held in juvenile hall under $500 bail, pending a full hearing next Monday. The U. S. Attorney and the probation service said they will recommend that she be returned to her parents in Hilo.

The girl told the commissioner she would like to get in touch with an uncle in San Francisco and see some of the West Coast, provided, of course, he would go her bail. The hearing was closed and the uncle's name was not disclosed.

St. Louis Judges Rule Can Water Whiskey

ST. LOUIS, (AP)—A bartender can add water to whisky, the U. S. Court of Appeals ruled, but can't put more whisky in the bottle.

The 2-1 decision was handed down yesterday on the basis that the federal law forbidding the addition of "any substance" to a partly filled liquor bottle referred to a "substance" on which a tax is due. No tax is due on water.

The ruling was on the government's appeal of eight cases which had been dismissed in St. Paul, Minn.

Grace Hartman Dies

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Cancer has claimed the life of Mrs. Grace Hartman Abbott, former member of the husband-wife dance team known professionally as The Hartmans. She was 48.

The Hartmans appeared on Broadway and in nightclubs throughout the United States and Europe. After their divorce she married television director Norman Abbott, four years ago.

Mrs. Abbott died yesterday at her home.

MEET MISS UNIVERSE — Hillevi Rombin of Sweden wears the regalia of Miss Universe, title she won in Long Beach, Cal. She's 5 feet, 7 inches tall, and a blonde.

Miss Universe Gets Short Film Speech

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—Miss Universe, Sweden's Hillevi Rombin, has started her film career with a six-word speaking part in a film about clarinetist Benny Goodman.

Her speech: "Just one more, please, Mr. Goodman."

She ran through the scene yesterday after only one rehearsal—fewer than average for a beginner. Universal-International cast her in the role of an autograph-hunting American bobby-soxer in "The Benny Goodman Story."

She speaks English and four other languages. Sharing her scene with Steve Allen was Carlene King Johnson, Miss Vermont and later Miss U. S. A. in the beauty pageant won by Miss Rombin last month in nearby Long Beach.

Juryman Selected For Galbraith Trial

MCALISTER, Okla. (AP)—An all-male jury prepared today to begin hearing testimony in the trial of Dr. Ben T. Galbraith, 34-year-old McAlister physician charged with the murder of his wife and three small children.

The jury selection was completed late yesterday with neither the defense nor state using any of their five allotted challenges.

Attorneys closely questioned prospective jurors on their feelings toward capital punishment. Six were excused for cause after they said they already had made up their minds on the case.

Viewers Guess 'Line' Of TV Guest as One Not Known by Panel

NEW YORK, (AP)—A television panel on the CBS show What's My Line? managed Sunday night to guess that the slim dark-haired young man's occupation was that of an elephant handler.

Nine hundred miles away in Royal Oak, Mich., two viewers thought they also recognized him as something else and they called the FBI in Detroit. Yesterday he was arrested on auto theft charges.

James J. Kelly, special agent in charge of the FBI office here, identified the prisoner as James Marshall Showers, 27. He had come from Detroit five weeks ago to handle two elephants in the "Arabian Nights" show at Jones Beach State Park on Long Island.

Police Wear Uniforms In Coast Chinatown

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Uniformed police patrolled Chinatown today for the first time in 75 years. The regular officers took over with dissolution of the special plainclothes detail dating back to the days of Tong wars. Many Chinese had objected to plainclothes details as discriminatory.

Richmond, Va. (AP)—Looks as if Calm Road and Blissful Avenue in residential Henrico County may not be calm or blissful much longer.

A real estate developer, who's building new homes in the area, asked the county supervisors yesterday to change the name of Calm Road to Rivermont Drive, and the name of Blissful Avenue to Academy Road.

"Calm" and "Blissful" really are not suitable names for streets, said he.

The supervisors planned to act on his request today.

Gypsy Sheds Spouse

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Stripper Gypsy Rose Lee shed her third husband yesterday. On grounds of cruelty and more than three years separation, the 41-year-old burlesque figure and author of murder mysteries won a divorce from Yulio de Diego, Spanish artist, whom she wed March 19, 1948.

Fine Weather Prevails Over Most of North

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Pleasant summer weather prevailed over most of the northern half of the country today but it was warm and humid in southern areas.

The cool Canadian air extended over the northeast quarter of the nation. Early morning temperatures were in the upper 40s and 50s through the northern tier of states from Wisconsin and Michigan eastward and ranged into the 60s as far south as Missouri, northern Kentucky and Virginia.

It also was cool in the northern Rockies, the Pacific Northwest and along the Pacific coast.

But temperatures were mostly in the 70s in the Southern states, and in the 80s in parts of Texas.

The warm weather extended northward through the plains but the humidity was less. It also was warm in the central and southern interior sections west of the Rockies, with Blythe, Calif., reporting 93 degrees during the night.

Morgan Moulder Plans Activity for Recess; Approved Tuttle Dam

WASHINGTON — Congressman Morgan Moulder does not yet have many definite plans for the recess period but one thing, he says, is definite—he'll be attending the ham breakfast on Aug. 22 at the Sedalia State Fair.

Congressman Moulder said, before leaving the capital, that he received the most satisfaction during the past session of the 84th Congress from the passage of appropriation for construction of the Tuttle Creek Dam in Kansas. This will be of great aid in flood control in Missouri, he said. Congress agreed to a bill allowing $7½ million to start construction.

Only about one in 50 of the radio hams in the United States is a woman.

Why Don't YOU Buy a New PACKARD Too!

Packard and Clipper Sales are Gaining!

Your Packard dealer sold so many Packards and Clippers that Vincent won the "Grand Prize", a paid vacation by Packard-Studebaker Corporation to Bermuda.

But, before he can go, his big stock of used cars that were traded in must be reduced. We must do this by August 15.

Here is where you save money on a good used car. No salesmen's commission to pay, no new car, or used car managers to pay. You buy a better car for less from your local Packard dealer. See Roe B. Vincent for the best deal in town.

All cars over $300 are Guaranteed. We use local, cheaper financing . . . this saves you money again. It helps Sedalia grow. Come in, look and drive your choice of these fine cars.

Cotton Crop Lower From Government Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department today forecast this year's government-controlled cotton crop at 12,728,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight.

This estimate—the first of the year—is 951,000 bales less than last year's production of 13,679,000 bales. It compares with the ten-year (1944-43) average of 12,952,000 bales.

This year's crop is being grown under rigid Agriculture Department plantings and marketing quotas which limit acreages to the smallest level permitted under farm law. The controls are designed to keep present large surpluses from becoming larger.

Captive Fliers Held Religious Services: One Read Whole Bible

TOKYO (AP)—The 11 American airmen just freed from 2½ years of captivity in Red China said today they had their own church services every Sunday after they were reunited in prison in December 1954.

"There was not a single member of our group who didn't take part a little bit," said Maj. William H. Baumer, Lewisburg, Pa. The two Catholics, Capt. Eugene J. Vaadi, Clayton, N.Y., and T. Sgt. Howard W. Brown, St. Paul, Minn., said the rosary.

Baumer and two others conducted Protestant services for the rest. On Christmas and Easter the Protestants and Catholics joined for services and sang hymns.

Brown said that in January he received a rosary and a prayer-book from his girl friend Antoinette Palermo.

Baumer said he "read a little" every day until he had finished the Bible.

On the Market

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—A University of Michigan marketing survey shows people like functional homes, automatic gear shifts, frozen orange juice and gas stations that emphasize service.

Of 60 home buyers, the survey found the huge majority checked the floor plan first, the outside second. And most of them ended up paying more than they had planned to.

Convenience brings customers to gas stations, the report said, but service keeps them. Brands of gasoline don't make much difference, it said.

The survey found 61 per cent of persons interviewed used frozen orange juice regularly. All but 11 per cent had at least tried it.

In gear shifts, the survey found women outnumber the men in favoring the automatic style although both prefer it. The main objection was the price.

GREATEST THING THAT EVER HAPPENED TO THE HARDTOP

236-hp Buick CENTURY, 6-Passenger, 4-Door Riviera, Model 63

THEY MADE THE RIVIERA A 4-DOOR BEAUTY
—and now you can have it with the biggest bonus deal in Buick history

TAKE a look at the sports-car snap and styling of the automobile pictured here and you'll notice that this is a Buick Riviera—the hardtop that has outsold all other hardtops in America, bar none.

Now take another look—and you'll see that this swift-lined dazzler has four doors, not just two.

And that's the big news. That's the buzzing excitement. That's the wonderful thing about this new kind of car that's sweeping the nation.

Here, you see, is the first combination of true hardtop styling and true Sedan comfort and convenience...

Because here you get the long, low, rakish look of a Convertible—with no center posts above the door line—with 4-door entry and exit—and with a bigger, Sedan-sized rear compartment.

Great news? Sure is—but it's only part of the good things you'll find in the line of great Buicks now sweeping the country.

There's the bold styling—the buoyant ride—the gorgeous new interiors that grace these big and roomy automobiles.

And there's action here like you never experienced in a car before—because here is the velvet might of record-high V8 power combined with the whip-quick getaway response and gas savings of Variable Pitch Dynaflo.† And when you press the pedal, your spirits really soar.

Record Volume Means Profit-Sharing Deals

It is all these things that have zoomed our sales volume past all expectations. So we're declaring a profit-sharing bonus deal on every trade-in now—an extra allowance beyond the normally long ones we've been giving all year. That means you get:

- 1. A Bonus Trade-In Allowance—biggest in our history.
- 2. A Bonus Buy—because in Buick you get the thrill of the year—in style, power, performance, value.
- 3. A Bonus Resale—because a Buick always resells high—brings you more money when you trade it in.

Drop in on us this very week and make yourself a whopping buy on the hottest-selling Buick ever built.

†Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick built today. It is standard on ROADMASTER, optional at modest extra cost on other Series.

COOL COMFORT FOR HOT WEATHER DRIVING WITH Buick's Airconditioner
(A genuine Frigidaire)

Automatically cools down the hot interior quickly—and keeps it cool. Replenishes inside air with fresh supply of filtered air. Lets you ride in quiet comfort with windows closed on dusty, windy, and rainy days, even when cooling is not required. Available in all 4-door Sedans and Riviera models at extra cost.
